HELPFUL TIDBITS

When making meatloaf, place a strip of raw bacon on the bottom of the baking pan before adding the meatloaf. It will give it a hearty flavor and prevent it from sticking to the pan.

GEORGETOWN HISTORICAL SOCIETY SPEAKER SCHEDULE
2010-2011 SEASON

Jim Bowden, president of the Georgetown Historical Society has released the speakers list for the Historical Society Meetings for the upcoming season. He extended thanks to Iva Booth and Karl Haller, of the programming committee for assembling the interesting and informative list of speakers. The talks will begin at the Georgetown Historical Society on the dates indicated at 7:30 in the evening at the Marvel Carriage Museum south of Georgetown on South Bedford Street Extended. Society members, as well as the general public, are all welcome to attend.

The schedule is as follows:

September 13, 2010 A lecture entitled "George Alfred Townsend: Delaware's Famed Civil War Correspondent" will be given by Hugh Councill of Lewes. George Alfred Townsend, born near the Georgetown Circle, subsequently moved to central Maryland. His Maryland residence is now maintained by the State of Maryland as Gathland State Park. Mr. Councill served as a docent at the park for many years. His lecture will be accompanied by a slide show.

October 4, 2010 No speaker as Society has election of officers

November 1, 2010 "Vietnam Mailbag: Voices from the War 1968-1972" is based on nearly 900 letters written by Viet Nam Veterans. The book's author Nancy E. Lynch of Bethel, will speak to the society and be accompanied by Viet Nam Veteran Rick Lovekin. The presentation will include a slide show set to 1960's music. The event is made possible by a grant from the Delaware Humanities Forum.

December 6, 2010 No speaker. The Society will be having its Christmas Party.

January 3, 2011 Georgetown's own brewery, The 16 Mile Brewing Company, has won awards in world wide competition with its novel beer cans featuring depictions of local historic sights. The proprietors of the brewery will talk to Society members about how the cans were created, what historical sights have been selected, and what sights may possibly be used in the future on their uniquely packaged products.

February 7, 2011 Keith Short of Seaford has a railroad crossing signal in his front yard—he is a serious collector of railroadians otherwise known as railroad memorabilia. He has addressed other historical societies in Sussex County as regards his hobby, and will bring the best of his railroad artifacts that he has gathered to show the society during this presentation.

March 7, 2011 Go back in time to when Eastern Shore towns such as Rehoboth, Milford, and Rehoboth among others had professional minor league baseball teams. Mike Lambert author of the book "Eastern Shore League" will speak to the society on this topic of years past. Mr. Lambert is a columnist with the Sussex Countian and writes "The Lambert Chronicles". Copies of his book will be made available after his lecture concludes.

April 5, 2011 no speaker as society has membership drive

May 2, 2011 Popular historian of southern Delaware Michael Morgan, will speak on "Alfred Townsend and 19th Century Georgetown". Mr. Morgan resides in Florida, and is the most published writer on Sussex County history, having written a column in The Delaware Coast Press for 19 years and a weekly feature in The Wave newspaper. Morgan has also written for national publications and is the author of several books on the history of Sussex County.
