SPECIAL THANKS

Special Thanks to everyone who sent, or brought in cases of water, and food, or ran special errands for the Chad Spicer funeral, the family, and the thousands of Police Officers really appreciate your concern.
Extra Kudos should be extended to Debbie Jones who coordinated the arrangements with necessary departments to make everything run smoothly. She had a large load on her shoulders.

(The following poem is dedicated to our new members)

I AM A NEW MEMBER

I see you at the meetings but you never say "Hello" You're busy all the time you're there with the one's you already know I sit among the people, I'm only lonesome not shy
I want to be your friend, you see, but you old members just pass me by You have all invited me in and you talk of good fellowship
You need only step across the room but never bothered to make the trip Why can't you nod or say "Hello" or stop and shake my hand?
Then go and sit with your friends, that's something I'd understand I'll be at your next meeting, this message I want to send Please introduce yourself to me
I really want to be your friend.
